

A fun activity to encourage more community participation and to bring visitors to shop in a favorite or new store in Pawtuxet Village.

Pawtuxet Village Scarecrow Contest

The Annual Pawtuxet Village Scarecrow Contest kicks off on October 1, 2018, on Broad Street Pawtuxet Village. The contest is opened to all ages. Schools, clubs, families, organizations, churches, youth groups, businesses, scout groups, and artists are invited to enter this contest.

Here are the rules:

- Please register with us to participate. Visit our website and click on the black “Scarecrow Registration” button at the top of this page, or send an E-Mail to: info@friendsofpawtuxetvillage.org
- Participants are responsible for providing their own material to decorate their scarecrow.
- All Scarecrow entries must be completed and displayed outside and attached to the historic lanterns/light poles only on Broad Street, Pawtuxet village no later than September 29th.
- Scarecrows must have signage distinguishing the owner or group, and should be prominently displayed and posted on the Scarecrow to ensure proper voting.
- Poles are first come, first serve. Businesses are encouraged to set up the scarecrow in their door front or inside the store to allow community members to use the poles.
- Scarecrows may be subject to severe wind and/or rain so their construction should be durable and with all ornaments securely attached.
- The scarecrows should not obstruct the view of traffic.
- Friends of Pawtuxet Village reserves the right to remove any entries that do not hold up to natural elements.
- Applicants are encouraged to create positive, creative, and nonviolent scarecrows.
- All Scarecrows must be removed between November 1-5. ★ There is no fee to enter the contest. Judging will be conducted by the public.
- TO VOTE: Download a copy of the ballot below, then submit, along with $1 at Cork & Brew (2200 Broad Street) or Twice Told Tales (2145 Broad Street) between October 1-26, 2018 (Deadline to submit is 12 noon on 10/26). The money raised will be used as a cash prize and donated to a charity selected by the “Best of Show” winner.
- The winner will be announced at Cork & Brew, 2200 Broad Street in the Village on Friday, October 26th. Stop by between 5-7PM for a FREE Autumn beer and wine tasting event where we will announce the winner.
